

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, The state of South Dakota has dedicated citizens, and we have very few occasions to recognize these individuals for their service to this state and country; and,

Whereas, South Dakota and this country were founded on hard work, perseverance, dedication and concern for one's fellow man; and,

Whereas, Sergeant Costas Kevghas devoted more than 30 years of his life to the service of this state and country; and,

Whereas, His loyalty and leadership have made him a cornerstone in the Armed Forces of this country; and,

Whereas, Sergeant Kevghas continues to give of himself, and his dedication to service has made him a valuable asset to this state and country; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to commend Sergeant Costas Kevghas for more than 30 years of dedicated and outstanding service to this state and country, and congratulate him on his September 30, 2006, retirement:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim November 10, 2006, as in South Dakota, and I join with his family and friends in wishing him well in his retirement and thanking him for his service to the state of South Dakota and to the United States.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Third Day of November in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Six.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
